Re: In the Matter of Petition of USTelecom for Forbearance Pursuant to 47 U.S.C. Section 160(c); WC Docket No. 18-141; Category 1

Dear FCC,

I live in San Francisco and until relatively recently have had only limited and expensive choices for my for my cable and internet services. I was using Comcast/Xfinity and their rates could be counted on to increase every few months. By the time I canceled the cost was $170 per month with no new speeds, services, stations. Just more cost extended to a long time loyal customer.

I now use Sonic. I had it installed over six months ago and have comparable service along with a landline for $60 per month. Im lucky I live where this is possible. My kids are not.

I dont understand why services like this are not made available to everyone. It is a necessary aspect of modern life.

Please consider even more competition for the benefit of consumers.

Thank you,
Marta Lutz
